

Secondary Level Volunteer Opportunities

Fewer volunteers are used in secondary schools than at the elementary level.

However, there are many ways in which they can help in middle and high schools.

Below is a list of ways that secondary level schools can utilize volunteers:

1. Sign-up as a special speaker about careers related topics and experiences, etc.
2. Help students in the guidance office find answers to questions about careers and universities
3. Help students on special projects
4. Help students with resource materials in the library
5. Assist in the school clinic
6. Read textbooks to students with reading programs
7. Assist students with various special needs
8. Assist in science labs
9. Assist in vocational classes
10. Accompany students on choral, band, club or athletic trips
11. Assist talented students in art, music, acting, etc.
12. Help arrange field trips
13. Sponsor school clubs
14. Assist in developing school publications
15. Assist in putting on student performances
16. Help students who were absent make up assignments
17. Help non-English speaking students with vocabulary and conversational skills
18. Assist in organizing a college fair
19. Assist teachers in gathering resources for units of study
20. Serve as math tutors
21. Serve on a “homework hotline” team
22. Assist athletic coaches
